CELEBRATION IN MARION ON JULY 4th

Marion will celebrate Independence Day on July 4th when the events of the day will begin with a parade at 9 A.M. Starting point will be on Main Street and will proceed to Spring Street, along Spring Street to Route 6, Route 6 to Front Street, Front Street to Main Street and back to point of origin. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded in seven classes.

The 20th annual horse show will begin at 10 A.M. in New England's Outstanding Horse Show Ring, Arne Arena, at the Charles R. Washburn Memorial Park off Route 105, Marion. The arena was especially designed and built so everyone would have an equal opportunity to follow the events of the show. There will be 35 events including English, Western and roadster classes. Show manager William "Red" Beardsley will be assisted by Chester Hayden of Tiverton, R. I., Ring Master; Elmer Potter, North Dartmouth, judge; Mrs. Fred Reeves, Portsmouth, R.I., steward; and Eugene Preston, Wrentham, announcer.

The horse pull and pony pull exhibition will be under the capable direction of Tom Briggs.

The youngsters will find booths of games and novelties on the Midway under the direction of Mrs. Franklin Gibbs, Mrs. Kenneth Nelson and William MacDougall and their many assistants. Not to mention the fire engine and buggy rides.

The air will be heavy with the mixed aroma of steamed clams, hot dogs, hamburgers, stuffed quahaugs and many other good things to eat, all cooked by master chefs under the direction of Joseph Zora and Gardner McWilliams. There will also be hot and cold drinks and ice cream too.

Things will be popping again this year at the pop corn machine. Although the children's contest is over, tickets are still available from members of the Marion Horse Show committee for the grand prizes to be awarded at 5 P.M. All proceeds of the day go to the benefit of the youth of Marion.

Island Wharf Bandstand will be the scene of the first band concert of the season. The Marion Concert Band, under the direction of John Pandolfi, will give their first rendition of the evening at 8 P.M. with the final number of the evening drawing to a close a day of fun filled excitement for young, old and not so old alike. Why not join the folks of Marion of July 4th and make it a family day?

Roland Thompson, chairman, is assisted by Richard Burrell, treasurer; Mrs. Warren L. Washburn, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Richard Stiegerwald, secretary; Clement Briggs, field maintenance; Sherman Briggs, field conditioning; Mrs Robert Thompson and Mrs. David Johns, programs; Warren L. Washburn, public address; Richard Daniels, tickets; and all other committee chairmen look forward to your visit.

SEWAGE SURVEY UNDER WAY

Selectmen have asked Fay, Spofford and Thorndike, Inc. to make a preliminary survey of sewage disposal problems at no cost to Mattapoisett as voted in Article 35 of the Town Warrant.

TRADING POST LICENSE SUSPENDED

Mattapoisett Selectmen have advised Albert Francoeur, owner of the Trading Post that the Board has unanimously voted to suspend his annual Wine & Malt Beverage and seasonal All Alcoholic license from the week beginning June 27 to July 25.

The suspension is based on the state law which prohibits sale or delivery of alcoholic beverages to persons under 21 years of age.

Selectmen advised that a third violation would mean a complete revocation of the licenses held by this establishment.

MOTHERS CLUB INSTALLS OFFICERS

The Rochester Mothers' Club held its final meeting of the season at the Town and Country Restaurant. A social hour was followed by a banquet, installation of officers and a short business meeting. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Robert Douglas, president; Mrs. Fred Tripp, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert Bassett, second vice-president; Mrs. Ward Benner, secretary; Mrs. David Enroth, treasurer; Mrs. Clifton Vaughan, director; Mrs. Ray Desrosiers, chairman of standing committees.

The outgoing president, Mrs. George Wood, was given a corsage and the sincere thanks of the entire club for her two years of hard work to get the club started. It was announced that the club's $150. scholarship was awarded to Miss Phyllis Hartley.

An executive board meeting was held the following week to establish the necessary committees. The following chairmen were appointed: Muriel Bassett and Carol Vaughan, membership; Marty Gifford and Judith Enroth, publicity and historian; Evelyn Benner, hospitality; Nancy Douglas, education; and Muriel Bassett and Katy Tripp, program.

A pot luck cookout is being held for all the members and their husbands at the home of Marion Wood on July 2nd at 8 P.M.

FOOD SALE

A home cooked food sale will be held in the Mattapoisett Grange Hall this Saturday, July 2nd, at 10 A.M. to benefit the painting fund.

EXHIBIT AT ART CENTER

The Marion Art Center is now featuring a wide range of paintings and sculpture at the exhibition of the work of Elizabeth Peabody Miller. This show is of special interest to area residents, as the artist is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Miller, long time summer residents of Marion.

Elizabeth Miller was born in Chicago and is presently living in a suburb of that city with her husband, Mr. John "Sonny" Miller, and their four children. Her art education ranges from the midwest where she attended the Art Institute of Chicago to Kennebunkport, Maine at the Elliot O'Hare's School of Watercolor. In between Mrs. Miller studied at the Art Student's League in New York City and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia. The artist now works on commission out of her own studio.

The subjects that seem to dominate this exhibition are delicate portraits and sensitive

SCHOLARSHIPS PRESENTED AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Recipients of the Raymond C. Hartley Scholarships received their awards at the annual smorgasbord held at the Rochester Woman's Club on the evening of June 23rd. Robert Lawrence, graduate of Old Rochester Regional High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence of Hartley Road, Rochester, received an award of $100 and plans to enter Southeastern Massachusetts Technological Institute in September. He will major in engineering.

Robert's activities in school have included president of Student Council, treasurer of National Honor Society, traffic squad, spring and winter track and class marshal class of 1965. He has been active in youth groups in Rochester, serving as president of Explorer Post 31 and president of Pilgrim Fellowship of the First Congregational Church of Rochester. In addition to being interested in sports of all kinds, he enjoys working on "hot rods".

The second scholarship award of $100 was presented to Miss Heidi Anne Hartley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Hartley of Hartley Road. She is also a June graduate of Old Rochester Regional High School and plans to enter the University of Massachusetts in the fall, choosing biology as her major.

Miss Hartley has served as vice-president of the National Honor Society and co-editor of Wayne Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Lawrence of Neck Road, Rochester, also received an award of $50. He is a graduate of New Bedford Vocational High School and will attend East Coast Aero Technical School where he will take the Master Technician's Course in aircraft mechanics. He has already started his course there in summer school and was unable to be present. Wayne has been a member of the National Honor Society for the past two years and served as its president during his senior year. He is a member of the Acushnet Grange and the Rochester Volunteer Fire Department of which his father is chief, and has participated in many other youth activities in Rochester.

Mrs. Everett Hardy introduced Mrs. Irving Ellis, chairman of the Raymond C. Hartley Scholarship Fund, who presented the scholarships to the young people.

The smorgasbord was a complete success under the chairmanship of Mrs. Everett Hardy, president, and Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Sr. and their able committee. Another summer event, the annual auction, will be held on August 15th at the clubhouse with Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. George Church, co-chairmen.

JUNIOR GRANGE ELECTS OFFICERS

The Mattapoisett Junior Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Friday night with the worthy master, Wayne Sylvia, presiding.

Jane Harris, Home and Community Service chairman, reported she is packing around 40 thousand cancelled stamps to send to Waltham to help the missionary work of the Sisters of the Marist Mission.

Mark Harris and Joseph Alves of the Agriculture Committee, reported the progress of their gardens.

Miss Lillian Jones, a member of the staff at Lakeville Hospital, became an honorary member of the Junior Grange. The obligation was conferred on her by the worthy master.

The lecturer's prize was given to Julie Harris. The election of officers was held and all but the lecturer, flag bearer, and 3 members of the executive committee were elected.

The following officers were elected: Mark Harris, master; Mark Breton, overseer; Charles Proctor, assistant steward; Julie Harris, lady assistant steward; Mary Beth Breton, chaplain; Susan Proctor, secretary; Edward McCartin, treasurer; Cathy Costa, gatekeeper; Harlene Fearing, Ceres; Elizabeth Bauer, Flora; and

CAPEWAY LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL

Results - Last week's games. Tuesday, Blues vs. Greens. The Blues shut out the Greens 11-0 behind Ray Quinn's 2 hit pitching performance. Quinn led the Blues' assault with 3 hits, while teammates Eric Pepin, Mark Breton and Steve MacLean had 2 each. Spoiling Quinn's no hit effort were Steve "Go Go" Gomez and Garry Taylor of the Greens with 1 hit each.

Cubs vs Eagles. The Cubs shut out the Eagles 8-0. "Teensie" Lopes, in pitching the win, chalked up his second no hit-no run game of the season. In giving "Teensie" due credit, it must be noted that no other pitcher this season has accomplished a no hit- no run game to date. Bob O'Brien and "Teensie" combined to drive in 5 of the 8 runs scored. Dan Gibbs had several brilliant fielding plays to his credit in a losing cause.

Reds vs. Royals. The Royals eked out a 6-5 victory at the expense of the Reds. David Fatula pitched the win while Julio Andrade, David Martin and catcher Gibbs took care of the hitting. Redmen Steve Howe and Roger Wilbur led the losers at bat.

Thursday, Royals vs Cubs. The Royals edged the Cubs 8-7 and stayed undefeated in the second round. Big "Dave" Martin had 2 homers for the Royals while Dale Briggs and Bob O'Brien doubled for the losers.

Greens vs Eagles. The Greens, bouncing back after a humiliating defeat at the hands of the Blues, took vengeance on the Eagles by a 16-2 decision. Steve "Go Go" Gomez led the assault with 2 long homers while teammates "Scoops" Bettencourt and Steve Kelly had 1 homer each. Tom Cooper got the win and was very effective after relieving Billy Cook in the first. David Gibbs and Jeff Osborne had 2 hits each in a losing cause.

Reds vs Blues. The Blues drubbed the Reds 16-3 to cap their second win this half and their 12th straight as against no losses for the season to date. Eric Pepin pitched a strong game and had a good defense behind him. Gene Gaspar homered for the Blues while Ray Quinn and

FESTIVAL OF FLAGS PROGRAM

Fairhaven's Festival of Flags, a four-day celebration, will begin at 9 A.M. Wednesday, July 6th, in front of the Skipper Restaurant. Walter Silveira, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, will cut the ribbon officially opening the Festival of Flags. Three Chaplains will then present and set up religious flags at the Honor Roll, assisted by Boy Scouts of each faith. A parade will then form and march down Main Street to Center Street to the Town Hall where the 8th Air Force Band will play while vocalist Stanley Lipp sings the Star Spangled Banner and the American Flag is raised on the pole. Speakers will be Congressman Hastings Keith and Admiral Johnston. In the afternoon Mayor Edward F. Harrington of New Bedford will speak to Pensacola Naval Air Station via MARS radio. This will be followed by a band concert by the Eighth Air Force Band at Livesey Park. At 6:30 P.M. there will be a Satellites Drill on Cushman Park Ball Field, followed by another band concert at the Anna Trowbridge Band Shell.

The program for Thursday: parade from St. Joseph's parking lot south along Rotch to Centre Street to Main Street, north to Cushman Park. In the parade will be the R. I. National Guard Band, Color Guard U. S. Army, two marching platoons from Fort Devens, Sentry dogs (Otis Air Force), Drill Team (Jody from Hanscom Air Force). The parade will start at 9:30 A.M. At 10:30 Selectman Earl Holden will introduce the speaker, General Charles O'Malley. At 11 o'clock the Jody Drill team will perform at the park. At 1:30 in the afternoon General Robert B. Bell speaks at the Junior High School followed by the Jody Drill Team at 2 and Sentry Dogs at 2:30 on the tennis courts. A Marksmanship Show by Lt. Col. Richard Jonas, U.S.M.C.R. will be held at 7 P.M. at the Larch Avenue auditorium at the high school, followed by a variety show by the Air Defense Command.

On Friday the Suffolk Air Force Drill Team will perform in front of the Town Hall at 9:30 A.M., followed by a display at Rogers School, a mass Pledge of Allegiance conducted by Selectman James B. Lanagan, followed by the speaker, General Wade. A Judo Team will be at the Millicent Library lawn at 11 A.M. Festivities will start in the afternoon at 1:30 with the invocation by Rev. Alan Nagle, ss.cc., remarks by Selectman Lanagan, a welcome on behalf of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts by Lt. Gov. Elliott L. Richardson, Mayor Edward F. Harrington, 3 selections by the Air National Guard Band and Japanese Anthem by the school chorus. The presentation of The Sumarai Sword will take place at 2:25 P.M. by Susumu Nakagawa, Minister extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, representing His Excellency the Ambassador of Japan. Acceptance of the sword will be by Susan Jayne Nicholson. Senator Edward M. Kennedy will then speak. A semi-formal Festival of Flags Ball will be held from 8 to 12 at the Town Hall.

Saturday's parade starts at 10 A.M. at South and Main Streets, will march north on Main to Benoit Square, then south on Adams to the Junior High School. The reviewing stand will be at Anthony School on Main Street. Rep. William Q. MacLean will be parade marshall. A band concert will be held at 1:30 at Cushman Park by the Naval Band and a 50-piece band from Fort Devens will perform at 3 P.M. The concerts will be followed by a speech by Governor John A. Volpe. A Viet Cong Village will be on display at the park.

On display throughout the four-day Festival will be Nike in Attack, auditorium Junior High School; Nike Hercules, yard Junior High School; tanks, 50-ton, Route 6, Fairhaven, A-USA; Armed Troop Carrier, Route 6, A-USA; Viet Cong Village, Athletic Field, Junior High, A-USA; Howitzers, Route 6, USMC; MARS Radio, Junior High gym, USAF; Gemini Capsule, Junior High gym; Flags of the world and UN Flags, high school; model of USS Quonsett Point, U.S. Navy, Cushman Park, July 9th; and floats at Cushman Park, July 9th.

day, August 16th. Table chairmen will be the same as last year except that Mrs. Tinkham and Mrs. Helen Winslow have exchanged places. Mrs. Tinkham will be in charge of food and Mrs. Winslow, the snack bar. Mrs. Florence Dexter is fancy articles' chairman and Mrs. Edith Morrell will have charge of white elephants. Mrs. Leila B. Sherman of Pumping Station Road, Marion invited the group to a picnic in her grove on August 2nd when final plans for the fair will be made.

A small rummage sale will be held later and members were asked to save articles for it.

Most of the members were much interested in a recent talk given at the Meeting-House by Mrs. John Chappell (Rachel Mostrom) whose father, Rev. Oscar Mostrom, of Wareham, formerly preached at the Meeting-House. Mr. and Mrs. Chappell have been visiting in the area, and attended the 50th reunion of Mrs. Chappell's class at Bridgewater State College. They are stationed at a college in Taiwan, Republic of Free China.

Mrs. Shaw has enjoyed a week's visit with friends in Buffalo, New York. She returned to Mattapoisett Monday.

ATTENDING YOUTH LEADERSHIP SCHOOL

Miss Doris Fearing of Mattapoisett Grange is attending the State Grange Youth Leadership School this week at the University of Massachusetts. Classes will be held in leadership, ritualism, code reading, program planning, conservation, drill, public relations, recreation, youth and music. On Wednesday a field day will be held followed by the youth banquet in the evening. State and National officers will be in charge of the weeks' activities.

WOMAN'S CLUB LAUNCHES MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club launched its membership drive at a Get Acquainted Reception held at Mrs. David Todd's home, Water Street, Mattapoisett.

Mrs. Todd's home, overlooking the Mattapoisett Harbor and reminiscent of the whaling days, provided an exquisite setting for the summer solstice gathering. A buffet was served in the dining room amdist a setting of pewter surrounded by pink and lavender flowers and candles.

Mrs. Louis Corey, Jr. and Mrs. James M. Pasquill greeted the guests and presented each with a floral name tag.

Mrs. Luen M. Johnson, membership chairman, conducted an informative greeting by presenting the board.

Mrs. Frank A. Oxnard, president, told of present club activities which are available to the club members. Among the programs are drama and literature, fine arts, bowling, American Home and Garden, community and veterans' service, plus the regular monthly meeting which always has a most enjoyable program.

Mrs. Louis Corey, Jr., first vice-president, spoke of having evening study groups in areas of interest to the members.

In the Fall definite groups will be organized, possibly in areas such as antiques where you bring in pieces and discuss origin, or have someone come to lecture. Another group might take turns teaching each other a variety of crafts, while other groups would be learning bridge. This phase of the club will be held in the group members' homes and will establish something interesting for those who would find it difficult to attend many regular daytime meetings.

Following Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Norman J. Atkinson told of a few of the monthly programs being offered next year. The rest of the board was introduced and the department heads spoke of their past year and plans for next year.
